The Spantsh Republic.

On the 10th of February, the lightning telegraph flashed over the wires, across continents and under oceans, the unlooked-for news that Spain is a Republic. On the evening of that day King Amadeus, finding that he had no support from the people, and tired of resisting the popular corrent which set in against him, abdicated the throne and crown of Spain. He must have keenly felt the delicate position in which he was placed-an alien on the Spanish throne-and though he had spent a princely fortune of two millions to render himself popular, yet even the prospect of poverty could not alter his determipation.

The Cortes, or Legislative Assembly, appears to have been prepared for the royal act, and at once, with little debate and no important opposition, resolved on a democracy, and proclaimed Spain a Republic, by the almost ananimous vote of 259 to 32! That this was in accordance with the popular will, is shown by the remarkable quiet which followed the revolutionary act of the

Whether Spain is prepared to maintain a Republican form of government-whether her people have the intelligence and love of liberty necessary to make the experiment successful, remains to be seen. It is a mighty leap from the ignorance and despotic rule to which her people have for centuries been subjected to the popular freedom and intelligence which form the foundation-stones of successful popular government.

Europe has now three Republics-Switzerland. which has withstood the storms and sheeks of followed the leadership of Thiers, with a fair prospect of success and Spain, which now pro-Hennasia poses to dispense with royalty, and trust to popu-Waimanalo, Kuolanpoku | lar sovereignty.

The Webb Subsidy,

This important measure, which the previous mail announced as killed for the session, has been revived in the Senate, and it is reported that it bids fair of being adopted. It is now proposed to tack an appropriation of $425,000 as a subsidy for the hme, on to the postal appropriation bill. and force it through the lower House, if the Senate decides to approve it. As it is understood that the Administration at Washington is warmly in favor of the subsidy, it is not improbable that it may influence a sufficient number of votes to carry the appropriation through both bouses. It certainly will be a disgrace to the American people to allow this national enterprise to fall through from want of encouragement. The next mail will bring decisive news whether it is to be continued or abandoned.

Progress of the Government Survey.

During the past three months the Governm surveying party has been at work on Hawaii, in the Waimes region. In December, a base line was measured with the apparatus kindly loaned this Government by the United States Coast Servey, on the plain of Paukapu, east of the sea was ascertained by leveling to be 2.821 feet.

A series of triangles was also measured, extending from the base line to the summits of Manna Kea and Husisisi, and to the shore at Peako and Kawaihae. The stations occupied have all been marked in a permanent manner, so that they will serve as a foundation for the complete survey of the Island of Hawaii at a future day. The latitude of the Kawaihae light-house was ascertained to be within a few seconds of 20 03.

A signal pole 25 feet high was set up on one of the highest cones with which the summit plateau of Mauna Rea is so thickly studded, and was carefully observed from five different stations below. The results agree very closely, and make the foot of the signal 13.755 feet above mean tide. The highest point of the mountain, however, was estimated to be 45 feet higher, both from the barometer observations and from some rough leveling with a carpepter's level, and is therefore about 13,805 above the sea. This is but a preliminary measurement, but can be de pended upon within five feet at most. ngias, in 1834, made the height 13,851 feet by a single barometer observation. According to Com. Wilkes, the elevation is 13.953 feet. measurement seems to have depended on an angle of elevation measured with a theodolite from the summit of Mauna Ken.

The height of Hualitai, which has been variously estimated at from 8,000 to 10,000 feet, was measured, and proved to be 8,275 feet. In 1823, Mesers, Goodrich and Harwood endeavored to measure it by means of observations made with an old quadrant at each end of a base line only 2.230 feet in length. Their measure-ment gave 7.822 feet for the height, but they recorded their opinion that it was probably much was quite near the mark.

An accurate survey will soon be made for the Government of the District of Kona, Oahu, with

The Leper Hospital on Molokai.

Dr. Tronssean and Hon S. G. Wilder, of the Board of Health, visited the Leper Hospital at Kalsupapa on Molokni, on Wednesday and Thursaudience to hear him on this, which will probably day of last week. They found the settlement numbered over 600 persons, of whom about one handred and twenty were the natives who lived in the village prior to its selection as a hospital site, who, as owners of the land, prefer to remain committed suicide on Monday night, by hanging about one hundred relatives, who have gone there himself from the cross beam over the front gate | self-bonished rather than be separated from their of the Hospital grounds. He will be remembered kin. The patients gathered there from every as the driver of Mr. Bartlett's grocery cart some island of the group, were as contented as could struck with paralysis, and has been more or less one, and in answer to inquiries, all said they had dance of food and every thing they wanted hospital is in good hands.

But while the patients now kept in the Molo-The Penner.—For nearly thirty years this kai Hospital are well cared for few realize the magnitude of this work. The plague is extending, and with all the vigilance of the authorities to check it by isoluting every new case, it is rap idly spreading chiefly among the young, who in-herit it from their parents. The very worst cases are boys and girls; and to establish and carry out the rule that every child tainted with the dislife among strangers and lepers, seems thorities demand that it be torn from its home and banished to Molokai. Yet this is now being done every month with natives. Who will say that the authorities have not a weighty task to execute the stern but only safe rule which has been adonted, with a view to check this loathsome

The aggressive policy upon which the President has determined with reference to polygamy means the passage of such laws as will remove the possibility of a conflict of jurisdiction between the Federal and Territorial statute law. The officers of the Government nuder Justice McKean framed indictionals for polygamy under the Territorial Mormon statute, but proceeded in the Federal Court. The ultimate result was that the Supreme Court declared all the proceedings aninwful. The United States is practically impotent to proceed against polygamy under the existing Federal statutes. The Logan bill, which the Pesident wishes to have passed, is a practical substitute for the existing Federal statutes, and may not be evaded by the Mormons. Although no military action is at present intended, the President has determined, as a matter of policy, to remove all the troops from the Southern States, and the all the troops from the Southern States, and the Fourth Infantry has been already removed. These troops will be stationed on the plains in reasonable contiguity to Utah.

From the mass of figures submitted by Hamm on his examination this afternoon, it appears the profits on the Ames contract were nearly $30,000,000; on the Hoxic contract nearly $9,000,000; on the Hoxic contract over $5,000,000, or a total on the whole road of $42,803,827, in stock and accurities at their par value. The cost of the whole road to the Conference of the books was $114,000,000. pany, as it appears on their books, was $114,000,000, in round numbers. The actual cost of construction was $71,508,000.
